

September 20, 2006
8:30 am - 2:30 PM
2003 Howe Avenue

Don't miss this important and informative interactive workshop! Learn how to comply with fair housing laws. Understand your rights and obligations under fair housing. Find out about important resources and referral information for fair housing matters.

This workshop will provide an overview of federal and state laws that govern housing discrimination. There will be an emphasis on issues relating to persons with disabilities, including reasonable accommodations, and discrimination against families with children, as well as an overview of enforcement of fair housing laws by the Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH). Presenters will include representatives from HUD, DFEH, and local fair housing agencies. Useful fair housing materials will also be available.

All persons interested in fair housing are welcome to attend. This workshop is appropriate for owners, property and resident managers, tenants, and government and nonprofit service providers.

If you want to attend this event and you need an accommodation, please make your request no later than September 13.
